

On behalf of Numetal, senior counsel Mukul Rohatgi told the tribunal that though the interim resolution professional had disqualified ArcelorMittal from round one of bidding there were stronger grounds to disqualify them from further participating in the bidding process. He said that according to Section 29(A) of

told the tribunal. In the case of Numetal, one of the promoters of the special purpose vehicle (SPV), Rewant Ruia, son of Ravi Ruia, is one of the original promoters of Essar Steel and this had led to disqualification of Numetal in round one. Rewant Ruia is beneficiary of a trust that backed Aurora

ArcelorMittal has said that Numetal is ineligible despite the changes in shareholding. Ravi and Rewant Ruia, by virtue of being father and son, are deemed to be "persons acting in concert", it claimed. ArcelorMittal, represented by Abhishek Manu Singhvi as legal counsel, said that the comditions require that permission of the committee of creditors be obtained for any change in the composition of the bidding consortium, particularly when there is an accompanying change in control. ArcelorMittal alleged that this was not done in the case of Numetal, especially when VTB came in as the largest shareholder.

"Numetal is a body corporate and not a consortium. Hence, individuals cannot be taken into account unless they have management control. In this case, Rewant is not in control of Numetal and is only one of the shareholders of the entity," legal counsel Janak Dwarkadas appearing on behalf of Numetal stated.
